Please attach a voided check for deposits into a checking account or a deposit slip for deposits into a savings account. To reduce delays, please verify with your financial institution for accurate routing and account information that is listed on deposit slips.

I authorize the Division of Child Support Enforcement (DCSE) to deposit my child support payments directly into my checking or savings account. I authorize DCSE to adjust any over/under deposit it has made to my checking or savings account. I understand that DCSE will make a reasonable effort to notify me within one business day of when an adjustment is made. I understand the deposit/adjustments will be made electronically by ACH transactions and I must allow the Federal Reserve two workdays from the disbursement date to have the funds available to my financial institution. I also understand the following: It is my responsibility to provide correct routing and account information for ACH transmissions by attaching a voided check, verified deposit slip or financial institution printout to this authorization. I will immediately notify DCSE if my banking information changes. I must include my name, social security number, and case number on all correspondence regarding direct deposit. I must submit a new authorization form to change my direct deposit. DCSE will pre-note the bank account I provide to verify my information. I understand that I will receive my child support payment via paper check while DCSE pre-notes my account information. I can stop my direct deposit by providing written notification or contacting Customer Service. I must notify DCSE of any changes to my address. I authorize DCSE to update my mailing address on DCSE records to be the same as the Home Address provided on this form. The Customer Service Automated Assistance Line (AAL) will provide the date DCSE disbursed my payment; I must verify with my financial institution when the payment is posted to my account and funds are available for withdrawal.

By signing below I affirm that I have read and agree to all of the conditions listed above.
