Your Go To Guide For Family Fun In Sussex County

Below is an excerpt from the web page...

"What is Ready, Set, Kidoo All About?"

I refuse to spend all summer cooped up inside, playing Lego Star Wars and watching Johnny Test.

In the words of Phineas Flynn: "I know what we're going to do today."

We're going to:

Ride bikes, Roller Skate, Ice Skate, Paddleboat, Swing, Slide, Climb, Swim in our pool, Swim in other people's pools, Swim in the ocean, Make sandcastles, Play Snail, Visit the beach, Get sunburned, Walk the boardwalk, Eat cotton candy, Ride the rides, See some movies, Join the summer reading program, Picnic at the playground, Hike the nature trail, Spend a day at the water park, Ride the ferry, Go to the carnival, Float down the river, Hang out at the Zoo, Play in the sprinkler, Relax with our friends, Make our own ice cream, Grow a pumpkin plant, Play kickball, Play frisbee, Camp out, Pick our own strawberries, Roast Marshmallows, and just generally enjoy our summer.

Who's with me?

This was the inspiration behind Ready, Set, Kidoo! As I penciled beach concerts and movie nights into our summer calendar, I realized I was spending hours at a time glued to the computer screen, chasing down one promising link after another, only to find that some of the ideas were way out of my price range, some were too far away, and some didn't even exist anymore.

That's when I started searching for a magic, one-stop shop for all things kid in Sussex County. And guess what? It didn't exist. So guess what then? I got in touch with my super-fantastic, web-savvy friend and we had a conversation of escalating excitement that ended with the birth of Ready, Set, Kidoo!

We started with the idea of an event calendar that would cover all of Sussex county, so families could find something great to do on any given day, including all the information you need like price, location, and age eligibility, so you can plan out your adventures from one central calendar. We thought that was a great start, but we didn't want to stop there.

We added a newsletter full of great ideas: fun and games, creative crafting ideas, kid-friendly recipes, tips and tricks, safety suggestions, and whatever else we can find that we think you'll like. Want to see something particular? Let us know!

We also created a hub where you can view photos and get the scoop on parks and playgrounds, businesses, and seasonal events all over the area. Want to know if there's a barbeque grill at the Jay's Nest? Not sure if there's enough parking for your Sunday family picnic? Wondering if your local bowling alley offers a birthday package? Need to know when your town's Christmas parade starts? We've got you covered with our Photo and Review site. It's a work in progress, so feel free to contribute as we build our library of reviews and photos."
