

Child Support - Speakers Bureau

When the relationship between parents ends, regardless of the length of the relationship, both parents have a legal and financial responsibility to their child(ren).

The Division of Child Support (DCSE) has a Speakers Bureau available seven days a week to set up exhibits and share information, participate in community events, and to conduct presentations. Information on DCSE's services is relevant for both the custodial, as well as non-custodial parent, and includes:

- Purpose & Procedures of Child Support
 - Why & Where to Apply
 - Locations & Hours
 - Fees for services
- Support Services
 - Customer Service (available 24/7)
 - Parent Locate
 - Paternity Establishment
 - Genetic (DNA) Testing
 - Voluntary Acknowledgement of Paternity (VAP)
 - Establishing & Modifying Orders (with Family Court)
 - Delaware Child Support Calculation (Melson Formula)
 - May include Medical Coverage
 - Payment Collection & Disbursement
 - Direct Deposit option
- Enforcement Tools
 - Consumer Reporting
 - Income Withholding
 - License Suspension
 - Lottery Intercept
 - Passport Denial
 - Tax Intercept
 - Unemployment Compensation
 - Wanted Poster/Presentation

If you would like to invite DCSE Speakers Bureau to present, or participate in a community event, please send your request with details to: DCSE Community Relations Officer - FAX: 302-395-6735.

Customer Service -&- Automated Assistance Lines:

New Castle County Tel: 302-577-7171

Kent County Tel: 302-739-8299

Sussex County Tel: 302-856-5386

Website: www.dhss.delaware.gov/dcse