

DDDS Advisory Council

Member: Emmanuel Jenkins, Vice Chairperson

Emmanuel is the founder of a nonprofit organization called We Stand 4 Something. His organization supports individuals with disabilities and their families. Emmanuel is currently employed by the state of Delaware, where he works full time for the Delaware Developmental Disabilities Council, as a Community Relations Officer. Emmanuel serves on many Boards and Commissions, locally and nationally. He is a co-chair for the Consortium for Citizens with Disabilities Developmental Disabilities task force. He is the vice chair of the state of Delaware's Rehabilitation Council, the vice chair of the Delaware Employment First Oversight Commission and the vice chair of the Delaware Developmental Disabilities Services Advisory Committee. Emmanuel graduated from the Partners in Policymaking program in 2014. Emmanuel recently became a member of the Advisory Committee for the Self Advocacy Resource and Technical Assistance.